Dear Dave,

Thanks for those computer bits.

If I remember correctly, Richie Pinto is a fine Canadian, friend of a man who has been a friend for decades. He has been her. They have the notion that Greer fired the fatal shot with his pistol and with his ~~his~~ left hand. They believe it, too.

I've not read the Medea book. If I'd had the time and the interest I would not have because of criticisms of it I now do not recall.

It has been that hot here, too, but we've been staying in. I do my walking long before daylight.

I you wind uo switching, I hope it is to something you enjoy!

Thanks and best,

Harold
